

DOCUMENT TITLE: CHARACTER PHILOSOPHY

- ❖ I believe in reason, knowledge, wisdom, and spiritual insight. I believe in making something out of humanity that really matters. I consider death a loss when it means a person's knowledge is lost forever.

- ❖ I believe in passion, emotion, action, and zeal. I live in the moment and want to experience life to its fullest. I follow my heart, wherever it leads. Life in chains is far worse than death itself, real or self-imposed.

- ❖ I believe in justice, beneficial compromise, and the greater good. I am not obsessed with law per se, but feel that the good of the world outweighs the needs of the individual. Only through compromise can there be peace as we work together. The end justifies the means.

- ❖ I believe in charity, sacrifice, and empathy. I live to help others, especially if it costs me something. It doesn't matter who I help or why I help them, only that I show compassion and empathy towards people in need.

- ❖ I live for power, fame, and admiration. I wish to influence the lives of others and to be remembered. Some may see me as selfish, but who are they to be my judge? If I must manipulate the lever of power to achieve respect, then I shall do just that.
